DAWSON SPEAKS TONIGHT

NEXT GOVERNOR AND PARTY LEAVE PARKERSBURG ON NO. 12 FOR CLARKSBURG.

SENATOR STEPHEN B. ELKINS ACCOMPANIES MR. DAWSON AND HON. TAYLOR VINSON.

Will Arrive Here at 5:30 O'Clock This Evening—Senator Elkins Will Likely Stop Over and Be One of the Speakers Tonight at Court House.

Hon. W. M. O. Dawson, candidate for governor, and other prominent speakers will arrive here at 5:30 o'clock this evening on No. 12 from Parkersburg.

Accompanying him are Taylor Vinson, who is scheduled as one of the speakers at the court house tonight at 7:30 o'clock, and also in the party is United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins.

The local Republicans have arranged to meet the distinguished party at the depot and escort them to the Waldo hotel, where a reception will be held until the hour for the speaking.

It was supposed they would come in on the Short Line train at noon from New Martinsville, where they spoke to a large crowd last night and a large committee of Republicans went to the depot to meet them. There was considerable disappointment over the fact that they did not arrive on that train and the reception planned for them at the Waldo hotel had to be abandoned.

Mr. Dawson comes to talk about the principles of tax reform and every one should turn out to hear him in the court house at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

A RECORD BREAKER

Ten Minutes to New York and Return—A Quick Sale Made By Mr. Guthrie, the Stock Broker.

Yesterday afternoon a Clarksburg attorney, who is the administrator of an estate, gave D. S. Guthrie, the stock broker in the Jacobs building, an order to sell six shares outright of an inactive stock on the New York Stock Exchange. Mr. Guthrie gave the order to his Pittsburg house, Richmond & Co., Inc., and they set it on to their New York house. In exactly ten minutes from the time the order was given Richmond & Co., a message was flashed back to Mr. Guthrie that the stock was sold at a better figure than the attorney put the order in for and instructions were in the hands of the attorney where to send the stock with draft attached. Ten minutes to New York and return brings Clarksburg very close to the principal city of the United States.

Mr. Guthrie deals in stocks, bonds, grain and provisions, outright or on margin, and has the quotations on the board for either stocks or grain in fifteen seconds after the transaction is made in Chicago and New York. Surely that is a fast wire service.
